Gill Morley (Treasurer) read out a report to the Board. It was noted that Hugh Mailey has completed the PAT testing within the Manse and Bunessan Church but hadn't realised that St. Ernan's was to be checked as well. This will be carried out as soon as he can. The cost of the PAT testing was £127.

The balance remains roughly the same as the last report, however

Andrew Todd waived the £48 due to him for grant application.

Gill informed the Board that with the Consolidated Fabric Fund we can claim back retrospectively for 3 years. This can be put against insurance and heating and lighting.

The choir donation covered additional electricity costs.

The lights and heaters have been left on in both churches on various occasions which adds to unnecessary electricity costs.

A new sign is needed for St. Ernan's donations box as misspelt.

It was agreed that there would be no Coffee Morning after Boxing Day.

Rhona Lindsay is happy to be the Independent Examiner again for checking the accounts.

Gill informed the Board of a request to fill in a survey for the Ministries and Mission contribution which the Board agreed to.

Income from fishing rights to be investigated and checked with trustees. In the period of 2016-2018 it was £190 plus VAT.

Linda received an email from Andrew Todd, reminding the Board about the thanking of his architect friend for the generous help that he gave towards plans for St. Ernan's. Jenny Earl was happy to do this.

The vote towards the future of St. Ernan's church has been postponed until after the Way Forward for St. Ernan's group have met within the new year.

After discussions within the Board, regarding the future of St. Ernan's church, it was asked that the Way Forward for St. Ernan's group provide details of their vision.

After Christmas it was agreed that small fund-raising items be thought about.

Minty Mackay had raised concerns about the shooting of woodcock and snipe across Manse grounds. The Board agreed that Minty should contact the Duke of Argyll over this matter as he retains the shooting rights for that area.

The Baptist Church has a plaque within it that has been donated to Bunessan church. The plaque will be looked at to see the information upon it and perhaps it may be more fitting for Historical Centre to display.

Photographs were found in meeting room tidy up and have been given to Ann Baxter who has kindly said that she will put them into a display folder. It was reminded that some of the photographs may need to be returned to the original owners.

The organ within the Baptist Church has been suggested towards St. Ernan's
